

BOOKNOTES

MANAGING PEOPLE FOR NZIG

Wellington, 1977

"Managing People for NZIG" is the title of a small booklet (26 pages) recently issued to managers in N.Z. Industrial Gases Ltd by the company's personnel manager, M. F. Dakin. Mr Dakin, a founder of the Industrial Relations Society and currently interim chairman of its Wellington Branch, is well qualified to deal with this subject and the booklet would be helpful to staff supervisors everywhere.

A HISTORY OF INDUSTRIAL LEGISLATION IN NEW ZEALAND

by Bert Roth

Christchurch, Valuesprint, 1977
(Price 50 cents)

This booklet is the text of a speech given at a seminar organised jointly by the Canterbury Workers Educational Association and the Canterbury Civil Liberties Council on 4 December 1976. It is published by the Christchurch Region of the Values Party.

BOOKS RECEIVED

Williams, A., Anderson, G., and Ransom, S., Essays in Grievance Procedures, Department of Business Studies, Massey University, Occasional Paper No. 18, June 1977.