

EDITORIAL NOTE

This issue of the VUWLR follows the pattern of collaboration established with volume 26 issue 2 of 1996. It is dedicated to comparative law material and is published in conjunction with the NZ Association for Comparative Law. The relationship with the Revue Juridique Polynésienne will also be maintained with some of the papers of this issue being reprinted in the next issue of that Revue.

The focus of the comparative material in this issue is on Japanese law. The VUWLR Editorial Board wishes to acknowledge the support of the authors and all who have contributed to this issue. In particular we are grateful to the Showa Law Office, and to the NZ Centre for Japanese Studies for their financial support.

We thank too HE Mr Tetsuya Endo, the Ambassador of Japan, for his encouragement and participation in agreeing to write the Foreword to this issue.

March 1997